

1. Exhibitors are permitted to enter and show market projects in up to two Jr. Fair Departments. Exhibition of a market project in a second department is permitted for educational purposes and is permitted with the following stipulations:
 - a. The number of market exhibits permitted per department may be found in each department's rules. (For example, an exhibitor may enter and exhibit up to one baked good market entry, up to 2 market hogs, etc.)
 - b. Youth exhibiting market projects in two departments will be permitted to sell only one of those projects through the Junior Fair Auction. If an exhibitor receives Grand or Reserve Champion in more than one species, the exhibitor may choose one of those projects to sell through the auction and receive full sale price (minus sale expenses). The second animal or item will be sold through the auction, but all auction proceeds above the market value of the item will be contributed to the Junior Fair Building fund in the name of both the Exhibitor and Buyer.
 - c. For Champion Baked Goods and Champion and Reserve Market Rabbits and Market Poultry sold as a second project, the market price paid to the exhibitor will be considered to be 20% of the auction price. Because there is no "Grand or Reserve Champion Woodworking project, exhibitors who choose to sell an animal or project in the Tuesday or Wednesday sales will not be eligible to sell a Woodworking project in the Saturday auction. Exhibitors meeting all requirements for the Woodworking auction may participate in the Saturday Woodworking auction as long as they do not sell an animal or item in either of the previous Jr. Fair Sales.
 - d. If exhibiting market projects in two departments, the exhibitor must meet all requirements of each project as established. This includes but is not limited to: the exhibitor participating in the show; all ODA, general and departmental rules; and all Quality Assurance requirements.
 - e. At the time of check-in or weigh-in the exhibitor must designate which market project he/she intends to sell in the Junior Fair Auction. This designation may only be changed in the event that one or more of the youth's market exhibits wins Grand or Reserve Champion.
 - f. Exhibitors are permitted to enter and exhibit only one market project their first year of participation.
