FFA OR SCHOOL DISTRICTS BOOTH

Delaware County FFA Chapters may prepare booths portraying any one of the following phases: Supervised practices, Leadership, Cooperation, Community Service, Earnings, and Savings, Scholarship, Conduct of Meetings, Recreation, Conservation and Safety. School Districts may prepare booths portraying the educational opportunities that make their district unique.

FCCLA BOOTH

The exhibit is to portray some phase of the work of the home economics department of FCCLA Chapters. The exhibit will be scored on its theme, title, and educational value, promotion of the organization's ideals, neatness, and attractiveness.

4-H BOOTH

The exhibit will be scored on its theme, title, and educational value, promotion of the organization's ideals, neatness, and attractiveness. All 4-H clubs in Delaware County are eligible to enter. All booths are to be put up by Junior Fair exhibitors and supervised by adults or premiums will be forfeited.

SCOUTING BOOTHS

The exhibits will portray program development in the World of Arts, Today & Tomorrow, Well-Being, People & The Out of Doors. This display will be based upon the four program emphasis:

- 1) Relating to Others
- 2) Deepening Self Awareness
- 3) Contributing to Society
- 4) Developing Values

An exhibit may be undertaken by a Brownie, Junior, Cadets, or Senior Troop or by a Service Unit representing all the troops in the service unit.

FARM BUREAU YOUTH COUNCIL BOOTH

The Delaware County Farm Bureau Youth Council will be provided one booth display area where they can inform people of the work of the Youth Council.
