

DEPARTMENT: CLOVERBUD 4-H ENTRIES

Department Head: Laryssa Hook

1. Exhibitors must be Delaware County 4-H Cloverbud members.
2. Cloverbuds will receive $1.00 and a participation ribbon. There will be no competition among Cloverbuds and Cloverbuds cannot compete in any class with older 4-H'ers.
3. Exhibits may be displayed in their group's 4-H booth or in the Cloverbud section. Exhibits must be dropped off at the Agricultural Center during judging on Saturday prior to fair; or during the week prior to fair between 6 – 9 p.m. Wednesday or Thursday; or between 1 – 8 p.m. Friday. Exhibits must remain in place until official release time for Agricultural Center exhibits.
4. Cloverbud exhibit should reflect an activity they completed as a Cloverbud in the past year. Poster exhibits must be on 22"x28" poster board. Oversized posters may NOT be exhibited. Cloverbuds can make a group exhibit or individual exhibit.
5. Cloverbuds can make only one entry in this division.
6. Cloverbuds can participate in an interview about their exhibit at the fair. This "show and tell" style interview is optional. Interviews are 9 a.m.-1 p.m., Saturday prior to fair in the Agricultural Center.
7. This is the only class Cloverbuds can enter on their entry form. Cloverbuds are not permitted to make entries in other competitive Jr. Fair classes.
