Fairgrounds Entry & Assumption of Risk Policy

By entering the fairgrounds, all visitors acknowledge and accept that they are doing so voluntarily and at their own risk.

The fairgrounds are an active agricultural and event facility where livestock, farm animals, agricultural equipment, motorized vehicles, uneven walking surfaces, and other potential hazards may be present. Visitors should exercise caution at all times and remain aware of their surroundings.

Livestock are unpredictable by nature. Visitors should never enter animal pens or restricted areas unless authorized and should always supervise children when near livestock.

By entering the fairgrounds, visitors assume all risks associated with attendance, including, but not limited to, risks arising from contact with livestock, agricultural equipment, weather conditions, uneven terrain, and other activities commonly associated with fairs and agricultural events.

The Fair Board, Fair Management, employees, volunteers, exhibitors, vendors, sponsors, and event organizers shall not be held responsible for accidents, injuries, illness, loss, theft, or damage to persons or property resulting from a visitor's presence on the fairgrounds, except as otherwise provided by applicable law.

Visitors are expected to comply with all posted signs, staff instructions, and safety rules. Failure to do so may result in removal from the premises.

Thank you for helping us maintain a safe and enjoyable environment for everyone.
